

④ Onoyama-koen Station

⑤ Tsubogawa Station

⑥ Asahibashi Station

Past the Kokuba River is an expansive park, Onoyama Park, a charming area where visitors can get close to the greenery and water. Many large-scale events are conducted in Onoyama Park. Get there from Onoyama-koen Station or approach it from Tsubogawa Station on the 10-meter wide pedestrian bridge, Kita Meijibashi Bridge. Asahibashi Station is connected to Naha Bus Terminal and can be used for traffic as well.

Onoyama Athletic Park E-5

Close to Onoyama-koen Station/
Direct access via pedestrian bridge from Tsubogawa Station
098-858-2700 (Park management office) 52 Onoyama-cho Naha City

An athletic complex with facilities for various sports including track and field. The park is also the location for the Onoyama Citizen's Festival and various other events. In addition to being known as the main site of the Naha Marathon, Onoyama Park is famous for being a comprehensive sports complex where many large-scale events are conducted. Including track and field, various sports schools are operated in the many facilities. Kita Meijibashi Bridge has become a pedestrian walk and is directly connected to Tsubogawa Station, allowing smooth access to the complex.

Onoyama Comprehensive Athletic Park Prefectural Hall of Martial Arts

Okinawa Cellular Stadium Naha Naha City Baseball Stadium

Kita Meiji Bridge

Multi-purpose recreation grounds

1 Mieguraku Historical Spot
2 Hotel Route-Inn Naha
3

Okinawa Prefecture Gokoku Shrine F-5

10 minute walk from Asahibashi Station 098-857-2798
44 Onoyama-cho Naha City Always open

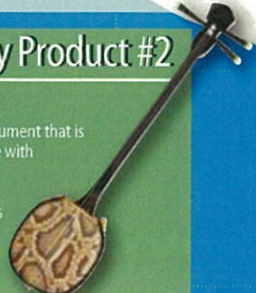

The largest Shinto shrine in Okinawa Prefecture
Located within the Onoyama Athletic Park, it is the largest Shinto shrine in Okinawa. It is dedicated to the dead of the Sino-Japanese War, the Russo-Japanese War and the Battle of Okinawa. The Shrine is visited by many worshippers in the New Year. As well being able to pray, worshippers are also offered prayers to expel evil spirits and other holy services.

Okinawa's Specialty Product #2

Sanshin

A traditional, three-stringed musical instrument that is truly Okinawan. The body is usually made with snakeskin, but recently, there are variations of traditional minsa or bingata designs. Together with the musical scores called kun-kun-shi, this would make a great gift or perhaps something special to remember your time in Okinawa.

National Road
 Prefectural Road
 Bus Stop
 Toilet

Naha Central Post Office E-7

1 minute from Tsubogawa Station 098-853-3398
 3-3-8 Tsubogawa Naha City
 Okinawa Communications Museum (Okicomm) located on the 2nd Floor
 Postal Service Hours: 9:00 AM to 9:00 PM (Saturdays, Sundays and holidays open until 5:00 PM)

Offering a complete line of postal services
 Services on the 1st floor include handling postal savings and insurance services, and a 24 hour window service. A museum is located on the 2nd floor, displaying stamps issued from various regions, as well as exhibits focusing on historical resources.

Naha Bus Terminal B-6

Close to Asahibashi Station Tel: 098-867-2707 (Administration Office closes on weekend and holidays)
 1-20-1 Izumizaki Naha City Open All Year

Transfer hub from Yui Rail for bus service to all of Okinawa Island
 There is a direct walkway for access from Asahibashi Station. The terminal offers transfer to bus transportation to all points on the island and is a convenient transfer point for visitors wishing to go to any area from the airport. Bus lines and route numbers are standard among the bus companies.

